

Happiness Heroes

Meet our 'Happiness Heroes'

They are ambassadors for promoting positive mental health and can be spotted around school wearing their special badges with pride. Every week they give out certificates in assembly for children who are using the strategies that we have been learning about in the myHappyMind programme.

